With excitement and laughter in the room, it was truly a day of celebration for all 18 newly graduated Animal Health Technologists. Beth Knight, with the Canadian Animal Blood Bank, presented awards to four outstanding students for their extraordinary efforts, going above and beyond what is expected of them while volunteering with the Canadian Animal Blood Bank.

2011-ISSUE 8

JAKE Cline & TAZ Gergely

HAPPY ENDING!

On April 5, 2011, Charleswood Veterinary Clinic had an emergency situation and needed blood products for a very sick patient.

Within just half-hour of this phone call both Taz Gergely and Jake Cline graciously came down to the Charleswood Veterinary Clinic for an emergency blood donor clinic.

They both did an amazing job! Special thanks goes out to them as well as to Jamie Cline and Nancy Gergely for being so accommodating on such short notice.

With this being Taz's last donation, we would like to thank him for his contributions and wish him all the best.
